

Ice Can Scream

Ice can call, Ice can yell Secrets no one Else can tell.

Ice can yell, Ice can howl, Naming winter's Weather foul.

Ice can howl,
Ice can wail,
Counting up
Each storm and gale.

Ice can wail,
Ice can shriek
Till the land
Is winter-bleak.

Ice can shriek, Ice can scream Straight across The autumn dream.

Ice can scream,
Ice can shout:
Winter in
And autumn out.

TIP OF THE WEEK

Students often learn that verbs are action words, and they think of running, jumping, and screaming as action. To help them extend their understanding of verbs, have students pick out the action words from the poem and then list some that the poet did not use. This is a far more effective way of teaching parts of speech than simply having students complete worksheets.

The Questions
